

October 2018 Activities

emmanuelphinneyridge.org

Emmanuel is a small, family-like church community that has called Phinney Ridge home since 1930. Our congregation spans the generations from young children to elders in their tenth decade, and we gather each week to support one another in community; to worship God through song, teaching from scripture, and friendship; and to dream about how we might live into our highest purpose...to be signs of Christ's peace, love, and healing in this world. We believe this happens best by embracing the diversity and gifts of each person in the family and working together to enact a vision of justice, community, and wholeness for all. Each month we host a variety of events and gatherings to build new friendships and community, and we invite you to join us!

More Event Details

NEW

Phinney Ridge Small Group – Oct 1, 8, 15, 22, 29

Gather every Monday night at 7:30pm at the Thomson home (310 NW 78th St) to sit in silence, engage in structured meditation, and to read and discuss long sections of scripture. The goal is for our time together to be a counterpoint to the noise, confusion, and impatience of our culture. No commitment required. Occasional drop-ins welcome. Eat beforehand. Contact: joe.thomson@gmail.com

Women's Bible Study – Oct 2, 9, 16, 23, 30

All are welcome to this ongoing Bible Study, now hosted at Betty Mulligan's home on Mercer Island (2735 61st Ave SE). Topics vary, but the time will always include fellowship, snacks, study, and prayer. Contact: maryjean_nealy@comcast.net

Dream Team Meeting – Oct 4, 11, 18, 25

Hosted by Keith Tungseth each Thursday morning at 8:00am at Emmanuel (breakfast is included). This group is open to all, and is focused on dreaming together about ways to reach out to our neighborhood. Each meeting includes prayer, reflection on scripture, and developing projects for outreach. Contact: ktungseth@gmail.com

Circle Group for Women – Oct 8

Hosted the second Monday of each month, from 7-9pm, at the home of Marilyn Moritz in Ravenna. This once-a-month group will focus on creating deeper friendships, giving voice to who we are as women, understanding our feelings, values and thoughts. (Note: Marilyn's small group has now reached its maximum capacity for the Autumn season. Please contact her to express your interest in future gatherings in the Winter and Spring.) NEW

Brazilian Worship Service – Oct 14

Join our regular Sunday worship gathering as we are led by special guests from Rio De Janeiro, Brazil. This group of young artists and musicians are part of a community that seeks to bring God's hope and transformation through the unique power of music and the arts. The Rev. Wainer Guimaraes will preach on "God's Creativity & Work Through Music" (1 Samuel 16).

NEW

Saturday Breakfast Club – Oct 20

Good food and fellowship. Hosted once a month by Patricia Kloster at locations around Seattle. This month we are meeting at 10:00 am at Patrick's Hawaiian Cafe & Bakery in White Center (10003 15th Ave SW). Contact: pkloster@uw.edu

NEW

Sew Generously: Private Viewing Party – Oct 20

Please join the Pew family for an open-house at David's new Pioneer Square tailor shop - a private event just for the Emmanuel community! We'll gather on Saturday, October 20, from 7-8pm at the studio (108 Cherry St), and then anyone who would like to join the Pews for drinks in Pioneer Square is welcome to stay after. Big Topics, Part 1: "The Nature of Scripture" Dinner and Discussion – Oct 27

Hosted once per month at 6pm by Bob Zurinsky and Mike & Mary Jean Nealy, at the Nealy home (4207 221st St SE, Bothell). Each evening will include a home-cooked meal followed by an open, guided conversation about one of the "big topics" in theology that Christians of good faith tend to disagree with each other about. Our first discussion will be focused on the nature and role of scripture - what exactly is the Bible, and how are we intended to read it? Contact: michael@theteamonesite.com

Prayer Team During Sunday Service – Oct 28

Our Congregational Care Team will provide a special opportunity for one-on-one prayer. While communion is being served during our normal Sunday Service, team members will be present off to the side, to listen and pray for anyone in the congregation. If you are interested in joining the prayer team, contact: em@emmanuelphinneyridge.org

NEW

Conservation Presentation – Oct 30

Do you love all God's creatures, or have a passion for caring for this earth? Join Robert Long, a Senior Conservation Scientist from the Woodland Park Zoo as he shares what our next-door neighbors are doing to help animals in our state, and around the world. The presentation is free and will be held in the sanctuary at 7pm. Contact: theaterarts@comcast.net

Coming Next Month

NEW

My Favorite Foods – Nov 10

This is an event for the guys at Emmanuel, hosted by Mike Nealy and Steven Fogell. We will cook and prep in the kitchen, and end with lunch, sampling everything we made. Please bring enough ingredients to make a freezable meal for 20 men in the shelter, and a bit more for us to have for lunch. (Think chili, enchiladas, casseroles, soup, etc.) If price prevents participation, come and simply help us cook. We will provide freezer containers for all the meals to be stored. Contact: michael@theteamonesite.com

My Favorite Things – Nov 10

Ladies of Emmanuel, it's time to get ready for our annual "My Favorite Things" party. The idea is that each woman chooses one of her favorite items, and then brings three of those items to the gift exchange to give others. It's a great time to share what you love most, and also to enjoy each other's company + autumnal treats. Contact: lauraannmartin88@gmail.com
