Worship at Home – March 22

This Week's Sermon:

Wisdom & Grace (in the time of coronavirus)

This Sunday, Pastor Bob continues in our Lenten study of Ecclesiastes by looking at the famous poem from chapter three and reflecting on what this kind of unflinching realism teaches us about growing as people of wisdom and grace – especially in a season when the world around us feels scary and uncertain.

Congregational Prayer for March 22

Each week, we will provide a new resource for prayer, written by members of our community. Please join us today in a congregational prayer composed by the Rev. Matt Randles.

The Music of Lent

Part of our worship experience always includes lifting up our voices to God in communal song. Our worship director, Jansen, has curated a special playlist of Lenten worship songs for us this week, and you are invited to listen on Spotify or listen on YouTube. This week, focus especially on the song “Wisdom and Grace,” the first song on this playlist.

Lenten Reflection Calendar

To help each of us enter more deeply into the transformative journey of Lent this year, we are providing a Lent 2020 Reflection Calendar with questions that you can use to guide your own meditation and prayer in the coming weeks. The calendar contains reflection prompts each day leading up to Easter. Please join us in this spiritual practice of preparation.
