

EMMANUEL

Worship at Home – March 29

This Week's Sermon:

When I was what I was born to be.

This Sunday, Pastor Bob continues in our Lenten study of Ecclesiastes by reflecting on the common beauty and sorrows – dreams lost and found again – of all creatures under the sun. Featuring some special music, and the story of his grandpa's life journey.

Listen to “When I was what I was born to be” on SoundCloud

Bonus photos that will make more sense if you listen to the sermon:

Congregational Prayer for March 29

Each week, we will provide a new resource for prayer, written by members of our community. Please join us today in a congregational prayer composed by the Rev. Matt Randles.

Home Recordings from Emmanuel Musicians

This week our Emmanuel musicians are undertaking a new project – recording and uploading (lo-fi) songs from their own home quarantines! Please follow along with some of your Emmanuel favorites as the list takes shape in real time. Visit Emmanuel Music Ministry on SoundCloud.

Lenten Reflection Calendar

To help each of us enter more deeply into the transformative journey of Lent this year, we are providing a Lent 2020 Reflection Calendar with questions that you can use to guide your own meditation and prayer in the coming weeks. The calendar contains reflection prompts each day leading up to Easter. Please join us in this spiritual practice of preparation.